

Contents

Preface	vii
Chapter 1 Becoming an academic	1
What is an academic?	2
What is expected of an early career academic?	4
Why do people become academics?	5
What are the benefits?	5
Chapter 2 Securing a position	7
What are tertiary institutions looking for?	7
How can you position yourself to be considered for an academic position?	8
What is a typical recruitment process for an early career academic?	10
What is expected in an application for an early career academic position?	11
What happens in a typical appointment process?	12
Does everyone have an equal chance?	14
Chapter 3 Developing your niche	15
What can you expect before you start?	15
What can you learn from reflecting on your career to date?	17
How might you envision your academic future?	17
How do you describe your area of expertise?	18
How and when do you say yes or no to opportunities?	18
How do you keep your focus?	19
Chapter 4 Planning your career pathway	20
What is your ultimate goal?	20
What are some useful considerations along the way?	21
What other responsibilities might make calls on your time?	23
What other opportunities might present themselves?	24
What is important in the end?	25
Chapter 5 Finding a mentor	26
What is a mentor?	26
Are there different kinds of mentors?	27
How do you find a mentor?	29
Should you participate in a formal mentoring programme?	30
What might you expect from a mentor?	30
Chapter 6 Becoming a tutor or teaching assistant	32
Why undertake tutoring?	32
How do you make tutorials worthwhile?	33
How might you structure your tutorials?	36
What is your role in preparing students for assignments and examinations?	37
How do you prepare a teaching portfolio?	40

Chapter 7 Developing your teaching	42
How do you gain teaching experience?	42
What do you need to know about undergraduate teaching?	43
How do you incorporate skill development?	45
What do you need to know about postgraduate teaching?	46
What is culturally responsive teaching?	48
How might you teach in more innovative formats?	51
Chapter 8 Building a research platform	54
How do you use your earlier work as a platform for developing your research trajectory?	54
How do you go about seeking funding for new or future research?	56
How do you go about seeking funding for new or future research?	57
What is expected in a research funding proposal (RFP)?	58
How do you keep up your research momentum?	60
Chapter 9 Organising a writing plan	61
How do you maximise your earlier efforts?	61
What do you include in an abstract?	64
How do you set up a writing plan?	64
How do you keep up writing momentum?	66
Chapter 10 Preparing for publication	69
How do you get published?	69
How do you turn your thesis into a book?	71
How do you choose your dissemination outlets carefully?	73
How do you determine authorship?	76
What is a typical publishing process?	76
How do you cope with rejection?	77
Chapter 11 Undertaking supervisions	80
Why is supervision important?	81
What are the personal and professional benefits of research supervision?	82
What is expected of you as a supervisor?	83
How do you work with students whose backgrounds are different to your own?	86
What do you do when issues arise?	87
What is involved in examining theses and dissertations?	88
Chapter 12 Engaging in service	91
What is service?	92
How do you contribute at a collegial level?	93
What is expected at a departmental or institutional level?	93
What can you do in the service of your discipline?	94
How do you offer service to your profession?	95
How can you engage in community service?	96

Chapter 13 Seminars and conferences	98
Why is attending and participating in seminars important?	98
What can you gain from attending and presenting at conferences?	99
How do you give a professional presentation?	102
How do you engage in networking and follow up?	103
Should you publish in conference proceedings?	103
Chapter 14 Preparing for continuation and promotion	105
How do you make the most of your time prior to tenure?	105
How do you prepare for confirmation or continuation?	107
How do you prepare your evidence portfolio?	107
What is the place of your teaching portfolio?	109
How are different cultural approaches taken into consideration?	109
What do you need to do to be ready to apply for promotion?	110
Chapter 15 Disseminating your research more widely	113
How do you increase your academic uptake?	113
How do you spread your ideas more widely?	115
How do you influence policy and practice?	117
How do you engage with the media?	118
How do you exercise your critic and conscience role?	119
Chapter 16 Developing your leadership	120
What is meant by leadership capabilities?	120
How do you develop leadership in teaching?	122
How do you develop leadership in research?	123
How do you develop leadership in and through service?	124
What is the place of collaborative leadership?	125
Chapter 17 Managing the demands	127
What can you expect in your first few years?	127
How do you fit it all in?	130
How do you maintain a life outside academia?	133
Where do you go for help?	135
Chapter 18 Setting up your own Emerging Scholars Forum	138
How do you find out what is already available?	138
How do you determine if there is interest in forming your own group?	139
How do you set up an Emerging Scholars Forum?	140
Notes	143
References	144
Index	145