

The 2023 Electoral College for the New Zealand Council for Educational Research

Eligible members include:

Particular people

Anne Meade, former director of the Council.

Ian David Livingstone, former director of the Council.

Robyn Baker, former director of the Council.

Holders of particular offices

Each person occupying the position of head of a department, faculty, school, or college of education at a university in New Zealand (by whatever name the position of head is called).

The chief executive of the Ministry of Education.

The chief executive of the New Zealand Qualifications Authority.

The chief executive of the Education Review Office.

The chief executive of the Tertiary Education Commission.

The chief executive of the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand.

The chief executive of Te Wānanga o Aotearoa.

The chief executive of Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi.

The chief executive of Te Wānanga-o-Raukawa.

People nominated by particular bodies or by holders of particular offices

One person nominated by the academic board or senate of each university in New Zealand.

One person nominated by Independent Schools of New Zealand Charitable Trust.

One person nominated by the New Zealand Māori Council.

One person nominated by Māori Women's Welfare League Incorporated.

One person nominated by Te Kōhanga Reo National Trust Board.

One person nominated by Te Taura Whiri i te Reo Māori.

One person nominated by Te Puni Kōkiri.

One person nominated by New Zealand Principals Federation Incorporated.

One person nominated by New Zealand Association of Intermediate and Middle Schools Incorporated.

One person nominated by Secondary Principals' Association of New Zealand Incorporated.

One person nominated by Ako Aotearoa: National Centre for Tertiary Teaching Excellence.

One person nominated by the Early Childhood Council.

One person nominated by the Association of Pasifika Staff in Tertiary Education.

One person nominated by Independent Tertiary Education New Zealand.

One person nominated by Te Tira Whakahaere.

One person nominated by the Teacher Education Forum of Aotearoa New Zealand.

Two people nominated by the New Zealand Tertiary Education Union Te Hautū Kahurangi o Aotearoa Incorporated.

Two people nominated by Adult and Community Education Aotearoa (Ace Aotearoa) Incorporated.

Three people nominated by Early Education Federation Incorporated.

Three people nominated by New Zealand Association for Research in Education Incorporated.

Three people nominated by Te Akatea Principals' Association

Five people nominated by New Zealand Post-Primary Teachers Association Incorporated.

Six people nominated by New Zealand School Trustees Association Incorporated.

Eight people nominated by New Zealand Educational Institute Te Riu Roa Incorporated, 3 of whom must specifically represent the early childhood sector of the Institute.

Not more than 4 chief executives (or their nominees)-of institutes of technology and polytechnics who are to be nominated by Te Pūkenga- New Zealand Institute of Skills and Technology.